SINN FÉIN

Greg
Your so crazy, I've never seen anyone like you. It's been great having you in 3rd period mad at you Mr. Vandeboe mad at you and Kicking you out all the time Thanks for all those times through my papers in the garbage. Have fun this summer. Love Paula
P.S. Were Seniors !!'85"

Greg
Oh God! What a damn good fun year this has been. Study Hall was fun getting out of. Have a great summer, see you next year.
J Stu

THIS WAND BELONGS TO GREG McMORRIS AND THE FUBAR MOBILE

My Fords still better than anything you can put together

Oh Greg
You the Ass I hope you never have another class with you. Your always in the way and never let me get my work done bud 'he'll -
Mike

Greg, you are the most Radical, crazy SOB. You are this year's Junior there, is Radical, awesome, Junior there, is serving all too familiar Is serving all!!! Deja Vu
Oh my God!!!
No NO NO!

Greg, you are the most Radical, crazy S.O.B. I've Junior ever had the Bad pleasure of knowing. You got kicked out of school, but I still give him hell about his voice. (Have a great Summer but in this Freshman year. Don't take Xrays.
TODD

Greg
It's been great to know you over the last Two years. I wrestling even though didn't see that much this year. Have a great Summer and don't lose your funniness. That way, Senior year will be even better than this one.

Greg,
Hell of a good year huh?
I don't know what it would of been like without you in Vandeboe's class. It was too bad
Crane got you kicked out of shop.
We have to get together again with
"V" and go to Big Time.
Have a good one,
Jim Gield 776-6067

Greg,
this year's been a great year in this screwed up shop class.
Have a great summer
Doug

Greg,
You suck at everything, but you're still O.K.
Don't take too many Bong hits this summ
mer but have lots of sex. Freshman

Greg,
Too bad we didn't get a class together, but maybe next year. I've had a great year, I said that a time or two. I'll see you around
But anyways see you maybe sure know,
in the summer. Take care.
Tahuya '85

GREG,
you are one wild ~~guy~~ guy
too bad you didn't go to Louisville in V's class.
Have a great summer
see you next year
your friend

Greg- wasn't Randolf just the radical teacher, wild! Hopefully I'll have you in a more exciting class next year. Have a fantastic summer!

Sheri McKinney

Greg.
It was cool haven you in auto-Shop and bugger yo God luck with the women and dont get too messed up this summer. Dave R.

Greg,
Your a real cool dude, and a great wrestler, and a great Biology student. Wasn't biology great. It was ok until Mr. Davis came back after Michelle left. Hope I see you next year, when your a SENIOR. Have a great summer, see you next year.

MRS. JOAN CALLENDER

"A woman in many places" - that's how Woodway should describe Joan Callender. From wife, to a leader of our students, to business woman and back home, Mrs. Callender has done it all.

She is a fascinating lady who started out as a real "bookworm" at Sequoia High School in California and went on to major in Marketing and Advertising at the University of Washington.

Her contribution to Woodway has been great. She is heavily involved in DECA and has taken her students to national meets and brought them home winners. She is also heavily involved with the Edmonds Chamber of Commerce, and, with her help, Woodway has been asked to have a student member every year.

Someone once said that, "Spending the first five minutes of the morning with Mrs. Callender is so nice that you can make it the rest of the week with a smile!" We love you Mrs. Callender; you're a real inspiration to us and our school, and we would like to dedicate this year's Sinn Féin to you - "A woman in many places."

CITY LIGHTS SHINE

The 83-84 homecoming at Woodway was the most spirited yet with all the classes showing their Warrior spirit. This year's theme was city lights with the seniors choosing New York and the other classes choosing London, Timbuktu and Rome. This year's homecoming royalty included Kurt Grafe and Brenda Olberg as King and Queen. Representing the other classes were Joe Brown and Stacee Ingebritsen for the juniors, Richard Sewell and Stacie Barnard for the sophomores, and Danny Howell and Stephanie Barnard for the freshmen.

ON HOMECOMING

This year's homecoming assembly was a spirited success! Each class had yell competitions and presented a skit for the whole school. Also included were homecoming royalty. "Kiss the Pig" and The International Chicken Olympics, two Woodway traditions, contributed to the excitement.

Greg,

You sure made 3RD period Vandelve interesting! I'm sure pissed as hell that I have to come back here next year. I'll be this schools only 5TH year senior. Ah well, what about those Mariners only 2½ games out of fust place, not that I'm interested, but still..... 2½ games! Youre quite a guy, and at times fairly likeable..... only at times though. Don't be starting food fights anymore, it could be bad for your health. See ya next year.

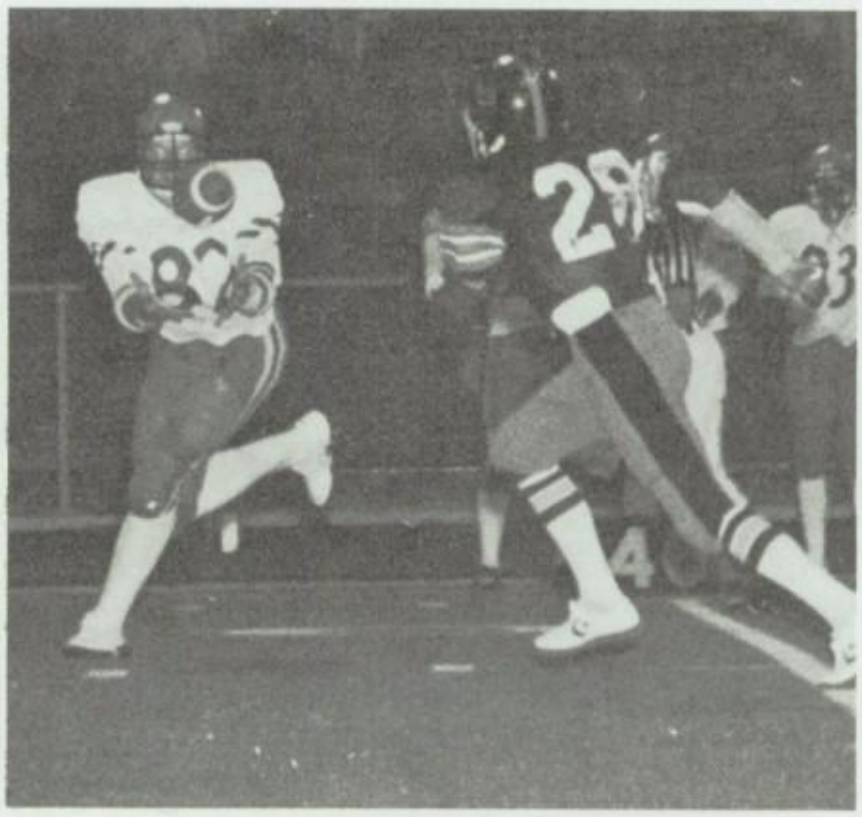
Woodway lost to Shorewood in a mini-game 0-3 for playoff birth and a chance for the WESCO title.

We got it!



We had it!

Action packed!

COACHES AND SENIORS PROVIDE LEADERSHIP

Senior team members, front row: Tim Moyes, Ray Christiansen, Kurt Grafe, Dave Marshall, Don Anderson, Scott Avery, Dan Keaton, Ralph Squillace, Kit Kohler, Mark Haggerty. Back row: Steve Forney, Nogi Asp, Joe Rupp, Mark Lundgren, Brent Johnson, Shawn Phelps, Dave Semeraro, Jeff Mickel, Gil Harding, Jeff Auvinen, Matt Emmons, Mike Day, Dan Gies.

The Woodway football team finished this season with a 5-3 overall record, including a 3-1 record in Wesco Southern Division. Their 14-7 win over Shorecrest in the last game of the year moved the Warriors into a three way tie for first. In the mini-playoff game for a chance at the Wesco title, the Warriors lost 3-0 to Shorewood.

Under second year Coach Bill Dunsdon the Warriors showed courage and determination to come from behind to reach their high conference standing.

Woodway had seven players named to the all-Wesco team. Selected on offense were running backs Mike Rankin and Kurt Grafe, as well as lineman Nogi Asp, Gil Harding, and Dan Keaton. On defense Don Anerson and Mike Rankin were selected. Honorable mention went to Jeff Auvinen, Scott Avery, and Gil Harding.

The Coaching staff of the Warriors: Mr. Edwards, Head Coach Dunsdon, Coach Openshaw, Mr. Allen, and Mr. Walster.

THIRD TEAM GOES UNDEFEATED

Woodway's third team went 6-0 in the 1983 season. The defense allowed only fourteen points to be scored against it while the offense scored a total of 157 points. The third team had a successful year and the team members are excited about the upcoming football seasons.

CROSS COUNTRY

TENNIS

This years girls tennis team was very young and inexperienced. Although it didn't show in their overall record, they had a very productive year and improved greatly. Next years team promises to be even better as eleven of this years fifteen team members will be returning next season.

VOLLEYBALL

This year's volleyball team consisted of five seniors, a junior, a sophomore, and a freshman. This team, with mutual effort, took first in WESCO, something no other Woodway volleyball team has ever done. Their saying for the season was "never give up", and that determination became one of their strengths.

SWIMMING

The 1983 swim team, led by Mrs. Joyce Carr, ended a good season with a 6-5 record. It was a very competitive season, and the girls showed strength and determination in their meets. This year's team co-captains were Karin Mork and Brenda Rynearson. Recipients of team awards were as follows: Inspirational - Brenda Rynearson and Kim Nehr, Coach's Award: Cindy Grove, Most Improved: Jayleen Bergstrom

Swim team members: Jayleen Bergstrom, Jill Brinks, Kelly Cannon, Tracy Craig, Kris Cronin, Cleanne Delaney, Lisa Downs, Shelley Fike, Kara Giarde, Donna Granados, Cindy Grove, Deanna Hale, Tami Henrichsen, Nicole Kaimakis, Jenni Markestad, Laura McCormick, Lisa McIntire, Karin Mork, Kim Nehr, Traci Pappas, Jenni Pauole, Jenni Prusa, Brenda Rynearson, Debbie Rynearson, Amy Schuerholz, Beth Smith, Youn Soo Song, Sue Walker, Mary Warsinske, Sue Willsie.

Back row: Hallie Herwick, Teri Adair, Stayce Cogo, Sissy Turner, Natalie Harding, Julie Jamison, Carol Olson, Brenda Taylor, Jody Isbell, Coach Sue Brown.

The 1983 Woodway Girls' Soccer team showed a lot of team spirit even though it had a disappointing season, with a record of 1-19-2. The team, made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores, looks forward to next year when their newly gained experience will carry them to a more successful season.

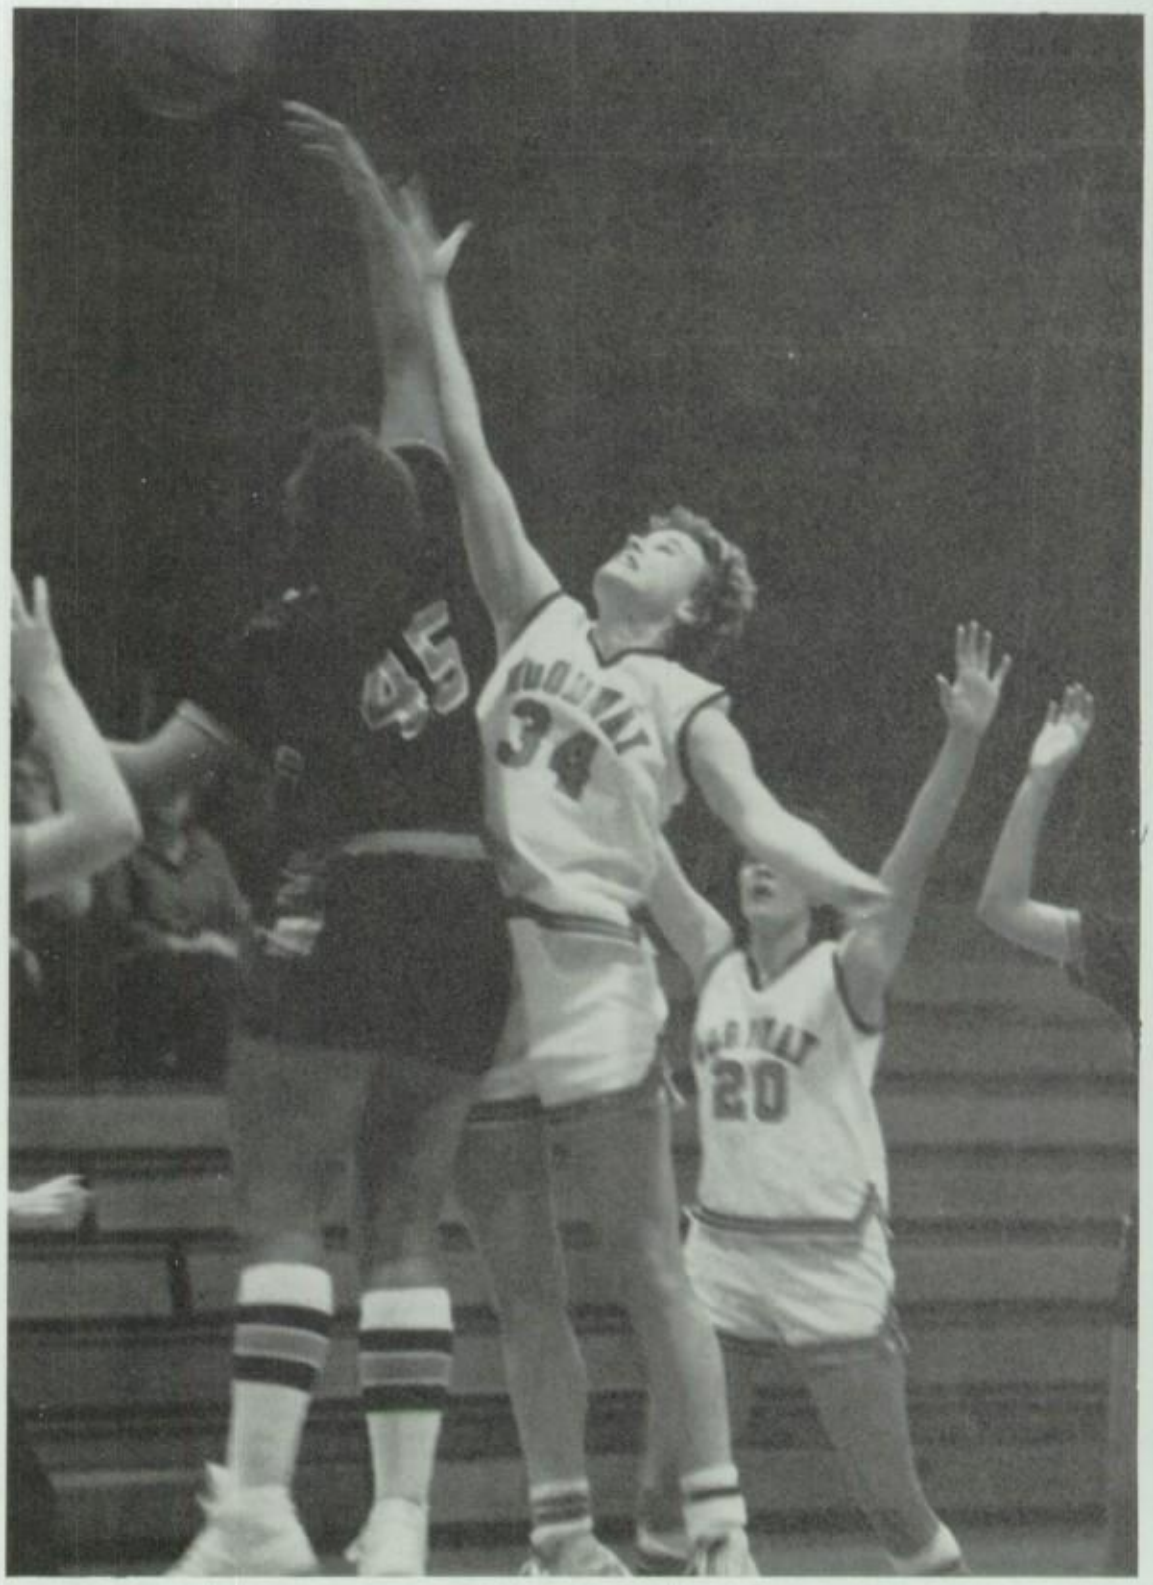
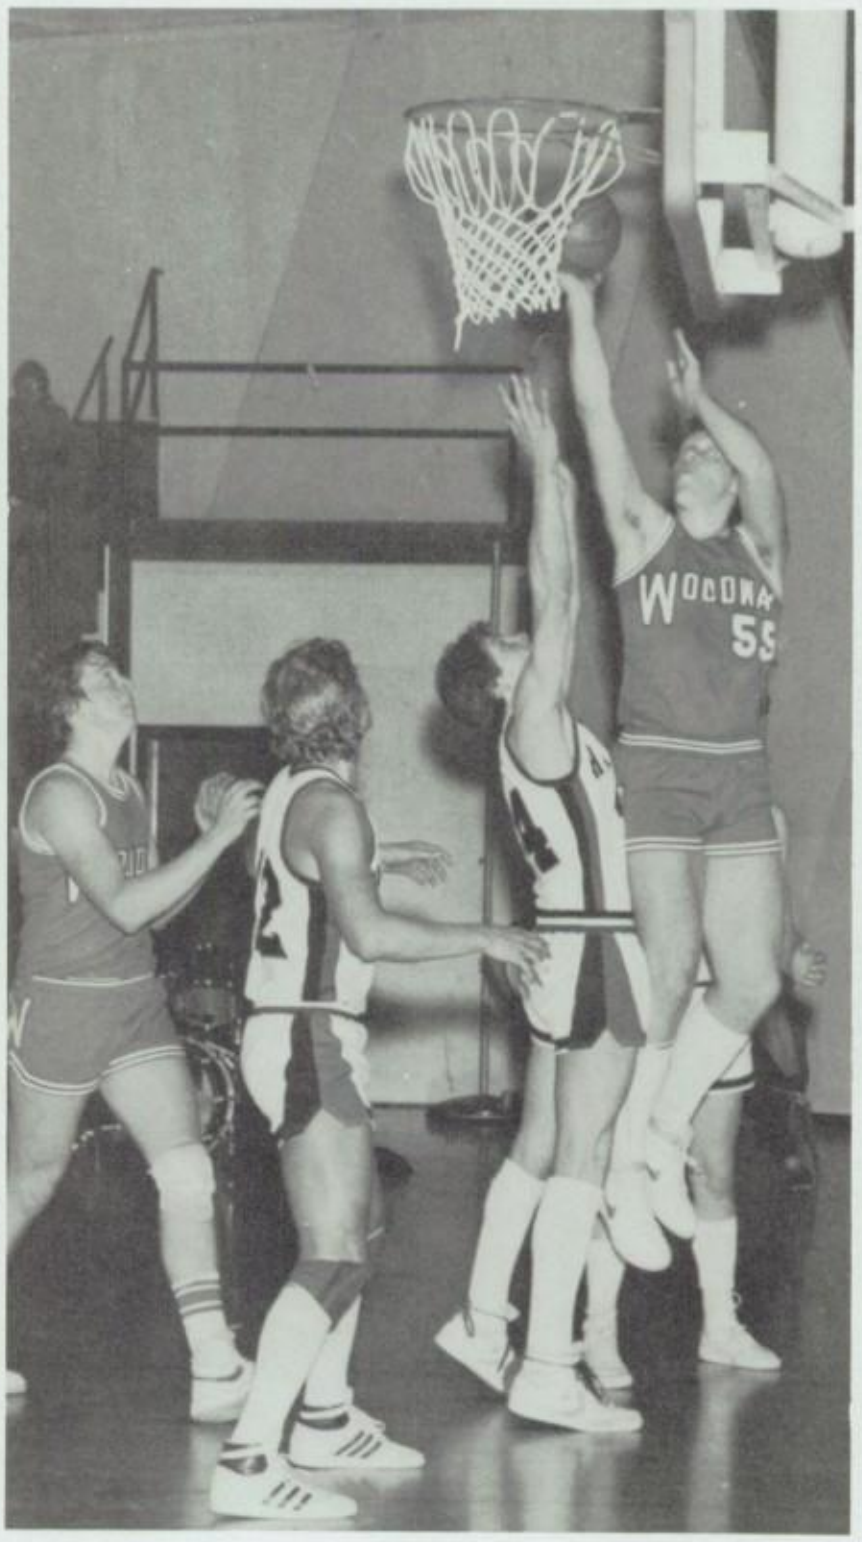
WINTER SPORTS





BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAMS

The varsity basketball team won the District 15 championship with a 12-9 record. Jeff Auvinen was the team captain. The team selected Jeff Mickel "most valuable player" for the second consecutive season. He also earned all-conference honors.

Ian Bird and Eric Strock were the top players on the JV team. The frosh team showed the most promise of any recent first-year team, and its leading players were Richie Peterson, Joel Larway, and Phil Olufson.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAMS

Members of the varsity team were Katie Romstead, Brenda Harris, Jenny Galbreath, Jody Rinaldi, Barb Wade, Janel Kriewald, D'Arcy Russell, Jacquie Gilmore, Kelly Joy, Sandy Mason, Carol Olsen, Colleen Mahoney, Coach Evans.

The Woodway girls' basketball team had its most successful season with a 25-2 overall record. The girls won the Wesco, Northwest District, and Region I titles on the way to the AA state tournament. There they won three games on consecutive nights to take the state championship. The title game against North Kitsap was a thriller. Barb Wade grabbed the rebound from her own shot and put it in the basket at the buzzer for a 54-52 win. Coach Bruce Evans had led the girls' team to third and second place finishes in the state tournament the two previous years, so this victory was especially sweet to the team, coaches, and school.

Kelly Joy was selected to the all-tournament team. Defensive standout Carol Olson set a tournament record with eleven assists in a single game.

Karen Bryant and Kelly earned places on the all-Wesco team. Karen and Barb were the leading scorers on the team, averaging about twelve points a game each for the season.

STATE CHAMPIONS!

Members of the junior varsity team were Vanessa Bates, Darla Wagner, Allane Sexton, Allison Halstead, Suzanne Walker, Sandy Feaser, Jody Wilkinson, Deena Wagner, Brenda Taylor.

Members of the third team were Liz Smith, Carolyn Comte, Vicky Deweese, Erika Gucker, Jill Bassett, Kim Mendenhall, Kellie Smith. Sue Campbell, coach.

Back row: Matt Emmons, Dan Block, Brent Johnson, Hassan Zavar, Rosemary Phillips, Cindy Grove, David Oberstadt, Roger Fong, Stuart Tessmer, Andy James.

The students who belong to Honor Society are selected on the basis of their scholastic ability and participation in school activities. Honor Society is made up of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. For sophomores to get into Honor Society, their accumulative grade point average must be at least 3.6. For juniors, the g.p.a. must be 3.4, and for seniors, 3.2. Selected members of Honor Society help at commencement ceremonies.

MATH CLUB

Members of Math Club are, front row: Ken Christensen and Gay Nixon, advisers, David Obserstadt, Cindy Grove, Roger Fong, Chris Smith, Lori Tiede, Tim Steen, Rebecca Funk. Second row: Stuart Tessmer, Andy James, Jenny Jun, Liz Smith, Debbie Williams, Susan Paschal, Lisa Downs, Cleanne Delaney, Michele Sawyer. Back row: Debbie Waldal, Saundra Forsyth, Skeeter Cornell, Jonathan Sposato, Mary Hanson, Shawn Burns, Deanna Hale, Kenneth Chang, Simon Koeman.

The Woodway Math Club meets Wednesdays during lunch to discuss and explore advanced math problems. By using sample tests, solving complicated problems, and learning arithmatricks, club members hone the skills they need to use in math competitions such as the Washington State Mathematics Contest or the yearlong contest sponsored by the Atlantic Pacific High School Mathematics League.

The Math Club is an enriching extracurricular activity where students are encouraged to utilize advanced math skills.

The German Club had another successful year this year. The big event was organizing and sponsoring the Worldwide International Chicken Olympics which was a cackling success. Unfortunately the planned Christmas caroling for German-speaking immigrants was canceled because of cold weather and icy roads, but the club made it up later in the year. German students also learned a bit of folk dancing and typical German and Austrian songs. All in all, the German Club continued its charitable work for others.

DECA

Advanced Marketing (DECA) is a class preparing its students in the marketing and management field. The class, run by the "wonderful" Joan Callender, learns leadership skills and organizational techniques, and is offered opportunities for recognition and the celebration of excellence. DECA brings dances, fund raisers, and, of course, the student store to Woodway's students.

Senior DECA members are, front row: Carla Lescius, Noelle Hines, Sonja Tijmann. Second row: Rhonda Repke, Andrea Larson. Third row: Cait Sterner, Kathy Kokesh, Paul Thompson. Fourth row: Dan Gies, Tim Brusseau, Traci Pappas. Fifth row: Wendy Mohn. Back row: Wendy Haight, Lisa Coleman, Stacy Kuntz, Warren Shannon, Erika Aure, Kit Kohler, Mike Zoretic.

The Junior Marketing (Jr. DECA) class started out the year "killing" Senior DECA with Pepsi. The junior class bought a Pepsi machine to compete with the senior class' Coca Cola machine. Junior DECA also participated in contests with other schools in marketing techniques.

Woodway's 1983-84 Choir consists of a large number of talented students. Directed by Mrs. Budelman, they have had many memorable performances. The choir has performed at the Montlake Terrace tree lighting ceremony and at the all district pop concert, as well as at many middle schools.

Members of the Neophonics are, front row: Sharon Powell, Marty Lecker, Stacee Ingebrigtsen, Kevin Parker, Deanne Corso, Mrs. Budelman (Director). Second row: Joe Van Hollebeke, Elaine Bunney, Mark Kronquist, Debbie Corso, Todd Carlson. Back row: Paul Cornell, Lisa Turner, Rick Rogers, Mary Hanson, Darin Hollingsworth, Sharon Hawley. Not pictured: Amanda Kite, Chris Rasmussen.

The vocal music department is full of enthusiasm and talent this year. More students are discovering the fun of singing in a group, so the Neos are growing in strength and talent. "We are on our way," says Mrs. Budelman. The Neophonics performed this year at the Westin Hotel, the Four Seasons Hotel, Edmonds' Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Senior Center, and Nordstroms. The Neos' biggest trip this year was to Moscow, Idaho, in the spring.

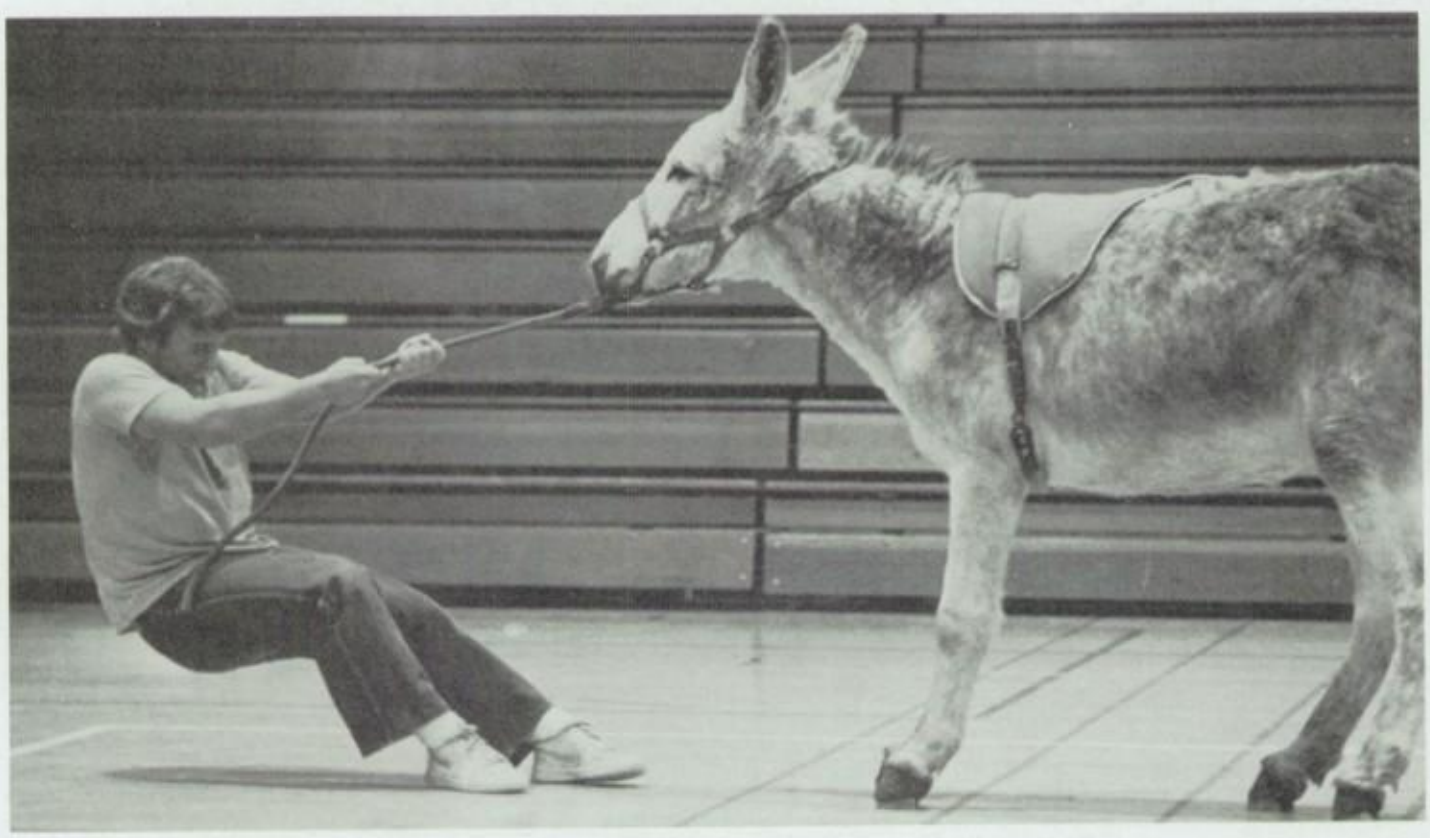
DONKEY BASKETBALL

This year's boys' basketball team sponsored a donkey basketball game consisting of selected members of the student body and staff. The game was a fund-raiser for the team's trip to Ketchikan, Alaska, to play in that city's invitational tournament. All three teams came away with one victory apiece as the senior-freshman team beat the staff but lost to the junior-sophomore team which in turn lost to the staff team. The event was a big success.



DRAMA PRESENTS

ACADEMIC TOP TEN SENIORS

SENIOR COMMENTS

WE, THE SENIORS OF 1984, being of sound minds and bodies, reveal our last words as Woodway High School students. We do solemnly:

1. reveal our most embarrassing moments.
2. predict a friend's future.
3. give advice to the underclassmen.
4. recall the best practical joke played on a student or teacher.
5. remember the time we laughed the hardest.
6. predict what we'll remember the most from our years spent at Woodway.
7. add miscellaneous comments.

TERRI ADAIR

2. I predict that Bridget Barker will be engaged to Fritz before she graduates.
6. What I will remember the best is summed up by saying, "It's been fun, it's been nice, but I sure as ... wouldn't want to do it twice.

LEDA VANESSA AMSBURY

2. Kris Collingridge will become a biologist studying the love life of African chameleons, marry a famous saxophonist, and raise penguins in her freezer while cavorting around to find the correct ingredients for "Chinese wombats in mustard sauce."
3. If ever in doubt whether to take Pottery I & II or Mrs. Koon's shorthand class, take Pottery I & II; it's less hazardous to your physical and emotional health.
7. "... those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles." (Isaiah 40:29-31)

DON ANDERSON

6. What I will remember best is the time that Joe Rockne, Dave Marshall, and I went camping at Granite Falls in 20° weather with 6 liters of an indescribable substance.

NOGI ASP

2. Dave Birks will renounce his belief in communist Mondays for saxophone bubblegum blowing on Tuesdays ... Button will follow.
2. Gil Harding will make millions as a Playgirl centerfold and marry Kelly Dibble.

ERIKA AURE

1. In a football assembly when I was a cheerleader and we tried to perform "Hurt So Good". It was Disastrous!!
1. Or the time I came out of the bathroom with my skirt tucked into my briefs. I couldn't figure out why people were laughing.
1. As I left from talking to Sheri Matysik in the parking lot, I successfully crashed into her car in front of the entire football team. I could have died.

JEFF AUVINEN

1. Upon finishing a fashion show, I was changing out of my tux in the DECA room when Mike Day and Ray Christiansen opened the shades. All I had on at the moment were my underwear, and I was in full view of the career center and study hall.
2. I predict Scott "Schmilin" Avery will go insane because of being too "on fire" in the morning before school.

JANE BAGGENSTOS

1. I walked over an air vent on my way to the cafeteria. My miniskirt rose to my armpits and exposed my undies to the entire cafeteria. Thanx Karyn!!
7. Kimmy T. I'll never forget you. We all need a hug now and then, don't we?

CHRIS BELOBRAJDIC

3. I don't really care about the underclassmen except for the girls.
5. During the winter orchestra concert, Barb Wade and I were sitting by ourselves in the middle of everyone, and all I could think about was the movie "Porky's" when the girl's P.E. teacher was trying to set up a line up of "Tallywackers!"
6. I really don't remember. It was just one big blur!

DAVE BIRKS

2. I predict that Ralph Squillace, after receiving a degree from Fred's College in Suburbia, U.S.A., and a federal research grant, will be studying the migratory and reproductive habits of small insects living in old women's wigs. Rob Thal will still be trying to beat the system.
4. I really don't wish that I were Mrs. Hall.
7. What did the woman say to the Pope when he went into the store to buy some Hostess Ho Ho's? No Ho Ho's today!

BRIAN BODINE

1. In my junior year at an assembly with my radio controlled car, I thought I was great and could drive through the streamers and it got stuck and I had to go get it in front of the entire school.
2. Tom Chitwood will be a junk salesman selling used Duster parts. He will become an overnight tycoon because all the fools in Washington won't get rid of their blue '73 Dusters.

LISA BORDER

3. To next year's cheersquad: Make the best of it while you can. It will be over before you know it. Have fun and good luck!
7. To: Sheena, Melissa, Tippy, and Jolinda, thanks for all the good times and laughs.

LISA CEPA

2. I predict that Ms. Holland and Mrs. Deebach will be kicked out for telling ..., well, tasteless jokes.

TOM CHITWOOD

5. When Lynda Roodzant said, "I like your peaches; may I shake your tree."

KRIS COLLINGRIDGE

2. Julie Larson, although she would like to deny it, will drop out of college after two years to get married and will abandon all thoughts of a career. She will settle down to the life of a suburban matron with 2.5 kids, pillar of the community.
3. Math is not as important as everyone would lead you to believe. To quote Fran Lebowitz, "In real life there is no such thing as Algebra."
7. "Ah, when to the heart of man was it ever less than a treason/ To go with the drift of things, to yield with a grace of reason/ And bow and accept the end of a love or a season!"-Robert Frost.

DEBBIE CORSO

3. Take Humanities, Mass Media, Jr. English, or the study of Black Literature with Big Jer-Bear, make him take you on some kind of field trip, and NEVER be afraid to ask questions!!
3. Deanne and Danielle, this one's for you! It was only one year and it went by too fast, but we got to help each other grow a little more. My advice is to stay close because when your best friend deserts you, a sister can be the next best thing!

TAMMY CURTIS

1. My most embarrassing moment is too embarrassing to reveal but if you really want to know, ask Sue Paschal or her mom.
3. Don't try to grow up too fast, don't hide beind a mask. Always be yourself, and when you do become a senior, enjoy the year to its fullest.

DAVID CLAUSEN

2. I predict that Brad McNutt in ten years will be world champion sumo wrestler.
3. I advise the underclassmen to take Mr. Openshaw's psychology class. It is interesting, and they will eventually go crazy like Mr. Openshaw.
6. I'll remember all the teachers that I've had and especially the people that I was able to meet.

KARYN DAHLKE

2. I predict that at the age of 20, maybe 21, Jane Baggenstos will have her first relationship with a male older than herself.
7. Paul, patience is a virtue! Love you, me-n-Jay.

MICHAEL DAY

2. I predict that Brent Johnson will be arrested in Vancouver, Canada while breaking into the Kokanne Brewery disguised as a 12 pack. He will be charged with drinking and entering . . .
3. My advice to Scott Amy, Holla, and friends is to take a trip to Vancouver, Canada, and hang out on Grandville and Roson street with a megaphone.
2. I predict that Ray Christenson will get naked on national T.V. to raise money for the Olympic fund to send Ray and the love team to the 1988 Olympic Games. Ray will take the gold in compulsory figures.

LISA ECKSTROM

1. Paula, remember that fashion show topless! Well you can have all of my problems, good luck! Good luck in your senior year, Mike and Robby! Love ya all! Best of luck.
7. "The time of my departure has come, I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." (2 Tim: 4-6-7) Thank you for giving me a warm welcome.
7. I came here so frightened, because of Madrona. Most of you let it pass and helped me to make it through. Edmonds doesn't compare to Woodway! Thank you B.O.B., P.V., S.P., S.S. Love ya.

SAUNDRA FORSYTH

2. Violet McGlashlan will put St. George on the map. I said she'd get it on the map- I didn't say it would become a tourist spot. She will also someday be president of Latimer Inc.
3. Laugh at all your teachers' jokes whether you get them or not. It makes them feel good.
6. The time between 7:00 and 7:30 a.m. when Violet McGlashlan and I took our grand tours through the halls.

PAULA GARRETT

3. Watch P.B.S.
7. In response to Lori Tiede's prediction: Oh, yea!? Well you're wrong.

DAN GIES

1. Everyone else tells me it was when I dressed up (or stripped down) as a playmate bunny. It was cold, but not terribly embarrassing.
6. Swivel chairs . . . the little black office lab chairs. Not just because you can spin in them, but because they are so executive. They can be stimulating without actually swivelling, for just the potential to swivel excites me. And then, when no one else is around . . . what a thrill!

NORM GILMORE

4. Dave Birks was first to put up small signs saying, "We wish we were Mrs. Hall" as a parody of an advertisement she had received. In the spirit of bafflement, I suggested putting up a billboard for the upcoming Winter Sports assembly. I found the poster, and Dave bought the tape. It took three hours and two rolls of tape to put up. The pledge took forever.
6. The Esprit de Corps of '84.
7. Class of '84 lives to baffle and be baffled. No one else has the courage to face dance at a mall. No other school has a precision chair racing team. No one else would deliver a fridge at 3 a.m. Bafflement: The leading edge.

KURT GRAFE

7. If you love something, let it go, if it gets run over, scrape it off the pavement and shove it to the side of the road, for it was never yours.

WENDY HAIGHT
1. At Aurora Village with Paul Gradwohl. He surprised me when he started pretending to be my retarded son. I laughed so hard, I accidently . . .
5. Ralph Squillace, Lisa Coleman, Erika Aure, and I were all in the front seat, and I was by the window, driving down the freeway at 65 mph and the door flew open. I almost flew out!
7. To Wendy and Stacie: Ah . . . . . ! Get outta my way!" "Always keep your leg out and be careful when walking near guardrails."

JODY HALL
3. To the girls' basketball team next year: Watch out for Abduhl!

SUZETTE HANEY
1. Dressing up for Spirit Week - I think it was green and orange day - I wore an outfit totally off the wall and when I got to school I found out it really wasn't Spirit Week after all.
2. Mandy Kite and Teresita Hernandez will become big rock stars, and they'll name their band the "Devoettes."
6. The think I'll remember the most is being involved with Impact. I made a lot of good friends and peers. I hope I never forget the things I've learned.

GIL HARDING
1. As a sophomore I had imbibed a few too many milks at Scott Avery's one Friday. I then proceeded to introduce myself to the upperclassmen by spewing my guts on his rug. I didn't live that one down for months.
2. Rob Thal will cheat his way through an Ivy League college. He will become a crooked politician who never shuts up.
3. Take any class with Big Jer Vandeboe if you get a chance - so easy. Never believe what they say about college; nothing is that hard.

JAIME HERBST
2. Lynda Roodzant, having an excellent subject for a year, will become a leading psychiatrist and modernize Freudian theory.
6. I'll remember best from Woodway Vandeboe's Bogart movies and Openshaw's interesting oral style. But please kill the Kwai.
7. To my Che, the fact that I'm without words for the first time in my life should tell you everything.

NOELLE HINES
1. The most embarrassing moment happened when I was walking out of McDonald's and three beautiful hunks of men came walking in. I was in such awe that I tripped over a sprinkler and fell flat on my face, also managing to spill my shake all over me.
2. I predict that Noelle Hines, Sonja Tijmann, Lynda Roodzant, Rhonda Repke, and Andrea Larson will be very successful in running their own business of male escorts and male dancing services.
5. The time I laughed the hardest was when Lynda Roodzant was rating guys in the Commons and she told Mr. Meyers that he was "Juice-A."

DAWN HIRAKAWA
2. Matt Emmons in ten years will have two kids, Wally and Beaver, and be happily married to a girl named June or Leslie.
3. To future calculus students: If you're into masochism . . .
6. The friendships, the games, long talks in restaurants, cheerleading in '83-'84, "Hurt So Good", stupid words like "ashtrays" and "mailbox", the spirit of this class - in ten years just wait, we'll all be successes. But for now, we're out of here!

TAMI HOOVER
2. I, Tami Hoover, predict that before Vanessa Amsbury is 25, she will be in a mental institution chewing on buttons and eating tomatoes while her husband and two kids are at home watching over the parrot, 20 frogs, and a dog.
3. Never give in to discouragement or Mrs. Koon.
7. I can do everything through Him who gives me strength. (Philippians 4:13)

SUZIE HOUSE
1. In Mr. Freed's class my junior year I got a paperclip caught in my mouth. I was sent to the nurses's office. She called Mr. Cook and told him to come down and to bring his wire cutters. It took 15-20 minutes to get it out.
3. If you get a bad progress report and you have to have your parents sign it, don't tell your teacher that your parents are on a month's vacation.
5. My sophomore year, the track team was at Stanwood and I jumped on a huge wooden cart. My friends pushed it and it went out of control, slammed into a curb and flipped. Some guy ran over and asked if I needed help.

CHERYL IREDALE
1. When I was a sophomore, I was walking through the Commons one day during lunch with a new dress and high heels on. I tripped right in front of everyone and tore my dress and nylons. Everyone was in hysterics. I almost died!
2. I predict that in ten years Warren Shannon will be editor of Vogue magazine, married to Brooke Shields, and living in a New York City penthouse.
7. There are good times and bad times, but the good times always win out over the bad times. Football games, dances, and parties, friends, fun, and laughter is what high school is all about - enjoy it while you can. I'll miss it!

RICHARD JOHANSSON

2. Oystein Michael Falch will go back to Norway, but he will sooner or later take up his talent as foreign student. And if he doesn't turn exchange again, he will at least write the handbook for Norwegian students in foreign countries.
2. Brian Stewart will make a fortune as the first "year around" Santa Claus in Northern Siberia.

BRENT JOHNSON

2. Dan Keaton will write a best selling book called "How to Get No Respect in Five Minutes or Less", subtitled "Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Food of the Gods, the Space Needle, Curling, Football Camp, Skippers, Forks, and the Number 55."
5. While in Mr. Plaisance's class in 10th grade, a tape recorder was on to record the lecture, and during the lecture, Wendy Haight muttered a certain expletive. To our surprise, although Mr. Plaisance didn't hear it, when the tape was played back, it came in loud and clear, and the class fell apart laughing.
6. I'll always remember the fabulous tales of great feats as told by Ralph Squillace. The one about the scholarship I'll never forget.

MICHAEL KALKWARF

1. Last year when the Spanish class went to Mexico, Jeff Michel pantsed me in the Puerta Vallarta airport while Darren Zimmerman snapped a picture. Perfect timing.
3. When you break for Christmas vacation, don't leave a tuna fish sandwich in your locker.

DAN KEATON

2. Brent Johnson will be a successful gardener in the heart of the farmlands of Canada.
3. To the varsity center of the football team: Never say "I don't get no respect" when the team fails to listen to you when calling "Huddle up!"

JEANINE KNOWLTON

1. Receiving at school and having to carry around twenty-one helium-filled balloons that my best friend gave me for a get-well wish.
2. I predict Kim Wisner will be married and have enough children of her own to run a day-care center by the age of 28.
2. Marty O'Neill will grow to be six feet tall and become an all-star basketball player (instead of a wrestler), continue to be able to take jokes and teasing the best of anyone I know, and stay a sweetie.

KIT KOHLER

2. Mike Zoretic will graduate from the third top California community college and go ahead to be one of the finest "B" rated film critics of his era. What does he want for nothing, a rubber biscuit?
6. I shall remember the people; by this I mean the many different personalities that adjusted well in coming together and forming a great '84 class.
7. I would like to thank Mr. Houseas for setting me straight and Joan Callender and the people from Senior DECA for preparing me for an easier future "social life."

JILL LANGLIE

2. I predict that Debbie Waldal will someday be married to Lance Romance Alba and she will be a burly professional soccer player with her taped ankles and knee brace.
3. To my brother, Kevin Langlie, I advise you never take Spanish again, but if you do, continue to give Kenny Ross a hard time and let the Langlie legacy live on! Smile bro! You have three more years.
7. To all my friends graduating with me, thanks for the good times and thanks for being there in the bad times. Smile, God loves you guys and so do I.

ANDREA LARSON

1. While eating at an expensive French restaurant, an absolutely gorgeous European man walked by and looked at me. The rice on my fork missed my mouth and fell onto my lap.
2. I, Andrea Larson, predict that within five years, Garret Lee Davelaar will become a high class male escort, American Gigolo material.
7. I'd just like to say to Jeff Prinz, Carl Stevenson, Garrett Davelaar, and Mike Rankin, I enjoyed being "one of the guys."

JULIE LARSON

2. I, Julie Larson, predict that by the year 2000, Vanessa Amsbury will live in a pink house, have a pink Porsche, precisely 500 pink frogs, a pink husband, pink kids, pink hair, a pink wardrobe, and be just tickled pink!
7. What are we wearing today, Kris? . . . I'm so confused! . . . Let's go the the beach! . . . Who's your favorite vase! . . . Duck Crossing . . . A..B..C..D..E . . .! Expresso anyone? Have you got your keys, Dawn? "Algebra is but a tale told by an idiot, signifying nothing."

SHERRI LARSON

1. My most embarrassing moment has to be when my bathing suit top fell down in front of Shelley Stelte's old boyfriend, plus friend, while swimming in his pool.
2. I predict that in the near future, Shelley Stelte will be a door-to-door saleswoman selling edible underwear.
5. I had to have laughed the hardest when Shelley Stelte took a free left at a red light while down in Edmonds one night. Duh!!

MARK LUNDGREN
7. No comment.

BETH MAKRIS
2. I predict that Sarah Walthew will be dictator on some island in the South Pacific.
5. The time I laughed the hardest is when Lynda Roodzant tried to embarrass Mr. Openshaw by "seducing" him. It worked. It was the first time I've see him with a loss of words.

AMY MAY
2. Michelle Noice will be jobless, barefoot, pregnant, and living in a mobile home in Mukilteo with her beloved husband Jeff.
7. I will Shawn Phelps all the freshmen he could possibly handle. I am also giving him my sophomore year - thanks Shawn - it was the best and the worst! By the way, summer's almost here. Where's my fifty bucks?
7. To all my friends past, present, and future: I love you all - thanks for being my friends - Michelle, Cyn, Andrea, Rhonda, Noelle, Sonja, Lynda, Craig, Randy, Scott, Darin, and how could I ever forget Shawn.

MARY MCFARLAND
5. When Brenda Olberg and I went to the movie "Tootsie" and Dustin Hoffman kept dressing like a woman, and another guy came up behind him and pinched his touche.
6. Being in Mr. Ross' Spanish class and learning to speak a new language.
7. When I graduate and enter the Navy, I will miss everyone at Woodway and will be thinking about all of you.

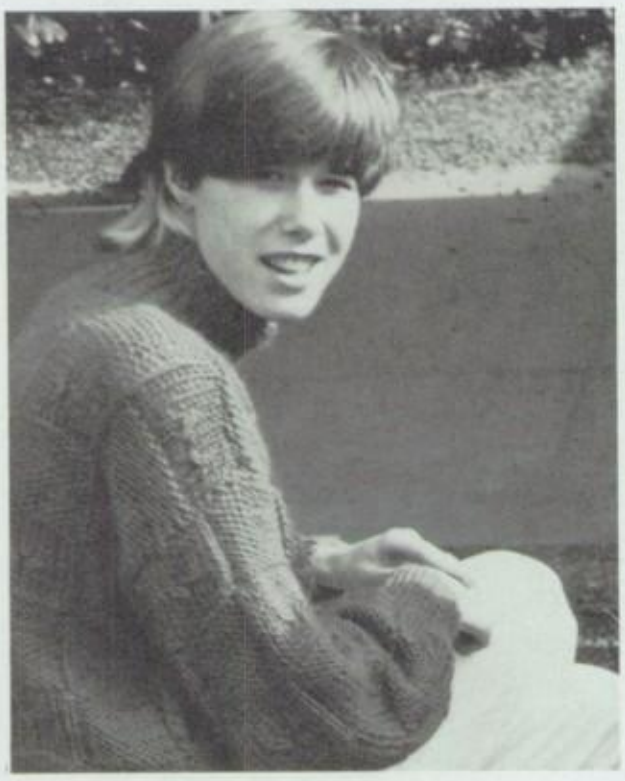
VIOLET McGLASHAN
1. The humiliation of getting kicked out of the library for a whole semester in front of my friends.
5. When Eddie Schippers pointed out a blue house to me on the way to a cross country meet on a bus.
6. When Sandy Forsyth and I made our grand tours through the halls before class.

KRIS MEE
2. I, Kris Mee, predict that Julie Dreger will marry Joey Nichols in 2 years. In 3 1/2, there will be 9 little Joeys running around.

MARY MEE
1. I would have to agree with many others (12 others) that my most embarrassing moment was doing a routine to "Hurt So Good" as a cheerleader in 82-83.
5. My most laughing times have been with Debbie Corso when she goes into her laugh attacks and ends up hyperventalating.

WENDY MOHN
1. My most embarrassing moment was when I was a cheerleader and our squad "attempted" a dance to "Hurt So Good" during a pep assembly.
5. The times I laughed the hardest were when Mrs. C. slipped and fell one day, and when Lisa Coleman threw me a note in biology and it landed in the fish tank.
7. To Wend and Stacie:
"Write this down!: Climbin' on, to save the day, He's jumpin' on."
"Throw me the Pencil!"

KARIN MORK
2. I predict that Traci Pappas, nympho and I will be be-bopping for the rest of our lives, also that the wild thing will be married tomorrow.
6. L.S.'s strange beverage, a variety of spirits.



MICHELLE NOICE
2. Amy May will be dancing on table tops at Sugars and still driving her yellow Pinto.
7. To Amy May: All the French bread she can handle, J&J forever ah! Michelle -n- Jeff forever!!

ANDY NORDBY
2. I predict that Brent Johnson will be color commentating on ESPN replacing the knowledgeable Kick Vital.
7. I will Ian Bird my jogging shoes, as he will need them to keep one step in front of his parents; I also will him my precious "Flex."

DAVID OBERSTADT
2. Ed Schippers will win Wesco Cross Country next year. Mike Oberstadt, my brother, will not be able to finish because of the tuba tied to his throat.
4. The funniest practical joke was when Cross Country put Norm Gilmore's refrigerator in Bob Plaisance's driveway at 3 am with a sign on it saying "Bob, you can have it, Roger M."

BRENDA OLBERG
2. I predict that Sonja Tijmann will be secretary to the President of the United States and the whole U.S. will be in chaos. I predict that in 5 years Woodway's colors will be changed to purple, orange, gold, and green.
7. 2 Thessalonians 15-18. It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice.

GLENDA OLBERG
1. The day I was walking through the Commons, trying to act like a sophisticated woman with a dress and high heels on, and Keith Zentner threw his book bag at my feet making me fall flat and sprawled out in front of everyone.
2. I predict that in 20 years, Norm Gilmore will be president of IBM computer systems. I also predict that in 10 years Brenda Olberg will be driving a station wagon (a Ford Escort) with three seats in the back!
3. "Jesus hears you when you call on Him for help, and saves you from all your troubles" (Psalms 34:17), so talk to Him and hang in there!

TRACI PAPPAS
1. My most embarrassing moment was the summer of my junior year. We were doing our routine to "Tequila" in the Seafair Parade, and I fell in a little chuckhole. Everyone who was watching started clapping for me.

ERNIE PECK
2. I predict that my little brother will grow up to be a rich miser. I also predict that Dan and Rick Ellis will form their own computer business.

CARMEL PETERSON
2. Cari McGrath and Jody Iverson will get together and start a babysitter education center and later expand it to a daycare center as well.
5. When Debbie Waldal got to kiss that cute little pig on Homecoming! It was great!
7. Thanks everyone for making these the best years! I've lived, learned, loved, and laughed it all!!

SHAWN PHELPS
2. I predict that Gil Harding will be an ex-college, ex-football player, beer-drinking roomie with Dan Keaton. "No Respect." I also predict that Amy May will be married to Eric and I'll still owe her $50.00.

JAY READY
7. I will Nancy Williams all my accounting knowledge.

LESLIE REISIG
1. My driver's license means a great deal to me. In going to take the test, I learned that my car had failed. Later, in pulling out of the driveway, I had forgotten only one major thing - to release the emergency brake. Such a test distinguishes the driver from the driven insane.
3. If your specialty is physics, do not excel in ambiguous questions.
7. The worst thing about doing nothing is that you can't stop and rest.

RHONDA REPKE
1. At a football game, Kevin Stump yelled out "Okay everyone run out on the field to congratulate our football team." I'm running on the field and looked back to see everyone follow and the only one I saw was Tim Brusseau.
2. Ten years from now, Noelle Hines, Andrea Larson, Sonja Tijmann will all take turns photographing male centerfolds and later will marry one.
7. Noelle, Sonja, and Andrea, it has been totally awesome! Nickname - Rockin Rhonda

JOE ROCKNE
2. I predict that Don Anderson will not last a full quarter at Central because I'm going to be his roommate and a bad influence on him.
6. I'll remember my friends and the crazy, unmentionable things we did.

LYNDA ROODZANT
7. My feelings and outlook on life has changed through these years. We all have strengths and weaknesses. In today's world there are many opportunities to play on our weaknesses. Drugs, sex, immoralities, and lies are all easy ways to escape reality. I have been a victim of most of these, but I'm not proud of that. Believe me, to grow equals pain. Nothing in life comes easy; we must all work at it. Finally, we must believe in ourselves and believe in the God that has given us our gifts and talents, whatever those gifts are. Love, Lynda Roodzant.
P.S. - It's Juice-A!

DAVID SEMERARO
3. Enjoy your years in high school while you can, but don't overconsume.
6. I most remember the night John Belushi died. Gil, Dave, Joe, Ray, and I toasted him until we could toast no longer.
7. Believe in yourself, believe in your school, if you drink Bud you will be cool.

WARREN SHANNON
1. At a social event at Michele Chomos', I had to use the "Big Bathroom" outside and before I finished zipping up, Sonja Tijman and Noelle Hines came around the corner and saw everything. Then someone took a picture. I thought I would die!
5. At lunch sitting with Lisa Coleman talking about doing something together, all of a sudden she says she wanted to get together and get ". . . up!" She didn't know Mr. Sankey was right behind us. She was so embarrassed; we laughed forever about it.

SUE SHELTON
2. I predict that Tom Chitwood will be a gynecologist.
5. Any semester that I had Openshaw.

KRISTI SMITS
1. In my junior year after tolo when the passenger's door was jammed and I had to climb over to the driver's side to get out when my dress bottom came undone, and that was the only thing that connected the dress to me.
2. I predict that my younger sister Shawn and all her friends by their senior year will be planning a way to take over the whole Woodway High to their benefit.
6. I will always remember all the "fun?" times spent in the yearbook class and how organized we were.

RALPH SQUILLACE
1. I was running with the football for about 30-35 yards against Meadowdale and just when I was starting to think touchdown, I fumbled for no reason at all. Even my teammates couldn't believe it.
7. I apologize to all who have been taken in by my terrible habit of stretching the truth, or just plain lying. I have learned that because of some of you, Gil Harding was voted "most likely to be seen at an event."

SHELLY STELTE
1. When I backed out of my driveway into a car that was also parked in my driveway because I forgot it was there.
2. I predict that Sherri Larson will own a men's bodybuilding spa and will be the manager of Mr. America.
3. Try to laugh at Mr. V's jokes even if you heard them the year before.

BRIAN STEWART
1. I'll never forget the time I walked into the girls' bathroom naked. Oh, wait, that was Stuart Tessmer, not me. Never mind.
2. I predict that Daryl Morris will be the world's first comedic minister and will be telling jokes like, "Two disciples walked into a bar . . ."
7. An orange, by definition, is an orange-colored citrus fruit. Therefore, it is logically impossible to have a red orange. You would have to think up a new name. Also, you cannot bruise ketchup.

STUART TESSMER
3. Keep plugging along; it will all be over soon.
5. It happened while listening to Matt Wright (The Mutant) cheer for our Warrior football team screaming "frozen pizza . . . cheesecake . . . fascist communists . . ."
7. Walking into the girls' bathroom naked.

ROB THAL
1. Unexpectedly proving to a packed library of upperclassmen that a seemingly innocent chair on a desk supports a 100 lb. tree. After removing the chair, I, much to my surprise, proceeded to display the art of tree wrestling. As the soil flew on the floor, the countless onlooking seniors unanimously agreed between laughs that I had lost the match.
2. Jeff Auvinen will cruise First Avenue on weekends in his stylist purple Cadillac checking out his ladies.
3. If you're looking for a sport to challenge your inner talent to see what you are made of and to test your inner desire to succeed . . .

PAUL THOMPSON
1. I was a mannequin modeling at Alderwood Mall and I hadn't eaten all day. I passed out cold in the middle of the mall.
6. I will always remember the "unity" of my Senior DECA class.

LORI TIEDE
1. In my sophomore year, as I was walking out to marching rehearsal, I slipped and rolled over my bass drum . . . (don't tell Mr. Caldwell).
2. In 6 years, Paula Garrett will finally realize that I was always right and she was always wrong.
3. Anything can sound stupid if you say it the right way.

SONJA TIJMAN
1. I had headphones on in C.O.L. and was dancing. I turned around and noticed Mrs. Dwyer trying to get my attention along with the entire class.
5. On weekends and sitting on the toilet talking about personal things when you find out the person you're talking to left about five minutes before.
6. Winning 1982-83 Wesco in tennis and most of all, my special friends: Noelle, Brenda and Glenda, Keith, and so many more. Thanks.

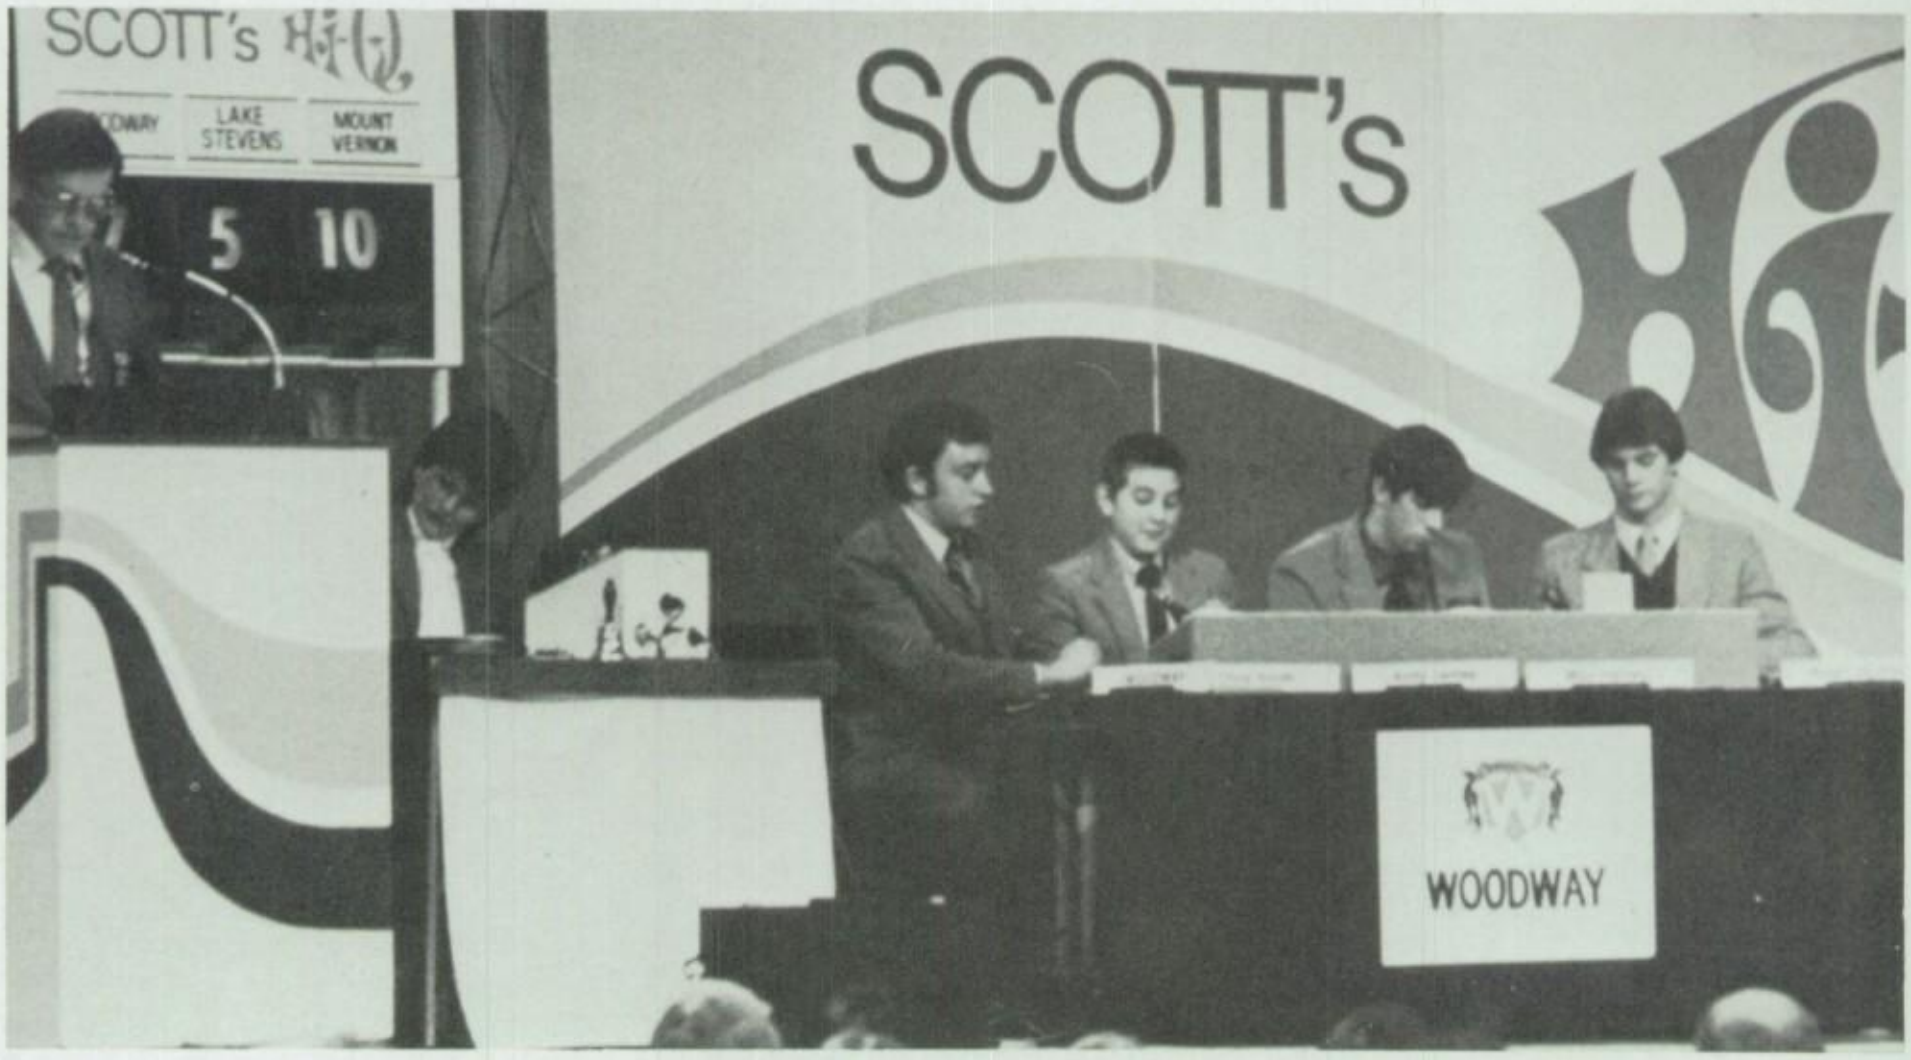
KRIS URI
2. Oystien Michael Falch will be an exchange student for the rest of his life. Rob Thal will be taking a few deductions on his income tax.
5. Dan Block and I were driving out of Woodway, doing 35-40 mph, when the fuzzbuster rang. He hit the brakes and I was plastered against the windshield as we drove past the cop!

BARB WADE
1. Running into the J.V. football coach's car while he was sitting in it!
2. Kelly Joy will become a world champion body builder and president of the KISS fan club. Jane Baggenstos will work full time at the food bank collecting canned food. Jody Hall will be a middle aged housewife with 12 kids, living in Fife. Wendy Haight will be a door-to-door glove salesman.
3. Boogie in Your Butt, and going straight.

DEBBIE WALDAL
1. I've turned red so many times by now that I've lost count! One of the most embarrassing moments had to have been kissing the pig at the homecoming assembly. I thought I could get out of it by staying in the bleachers, but no! They decided to carry me down to kiss that thing! Yuk! I was so embarrassed.
3. Advice to girls' soccer players: never wear flowered underpants with those "see through" white shorts; you'll be sorry! General advice to underclassmen: Be the very best you can possibly be, work hard, and keep a smile on your face! To Cleanne Delaney: Keep up the Tacoma Tigers traditions and maybe someday we'll revive the Sounders!
6. I'll always remember all my fine teachers, the hard work, fun times, and the greatest friends. Thanks alot everyone! You're a wonderful bunch. I love you all!

SARAH WALTHEW
1. A friend drove me home after a volleyball game. I went to my car to get my Spanish book, but my car wasn't there. I forgot where I put it. So I got my mom's car and drove all over looking for it. I found it at Woodway, but all the gates were locked.
2. Dawn Hirakawa will grow up to be God.
3. Don't go to McDonalds during school because Mrs. Deebach and Ms. Holland will blackmail you.

MIKE WETZEL
1. The time Stuart Tessmer walked into the girls' bathroom naked.
2. I predict Brian C. Stewart will tour the Vatican as Father Gino Fetuccini and develop a cult following. It won't be long before people everywhere are Fetuccini for Prez. T-shirts and "I Love Gino" buttons.
4. A certain group of underclassmen were being extremely obnoxious at Pizza Haven, so on one Wednesday night when one of them approached me with his immature gestures and noises, I pulled out my squirt gun (I had been waiting for this) and soaked him. It wasn't funny but it was gratifying.



DEBBIE WILLIAMS

1. When running in a cross country meet at Deception Pass, I got lost going on the warm-up. (I just love 7-mile warm-ups.) I returned just in time to run the meet, but I noticed while running I passed the same spot three times. Talk about being lost!
2. Debbie Waldal will be a playboy bunny. Carmel Petersen will manage a Baskin and Robbins.
4. Leaving an old broken down refrigerator in Mr. Plaisance's driveway as a cross country joke. The note on it read, "Now you can have it, Roger M." After calling Roger to remove it, Bob knew he had been had. To revenge this prank, he said he sold the refrigerator to a refugee family for $50; his family was even in on it. Later we found out the truth; he had given it away.

KEITH M. ZENTNER

2. I predict the Olberg twins will, in ten years, be desperately trying to fit into their cheerleading outfits, but brutally failing.
5. Ninth grade
7. If you smoke and drive a car, by all means use the car ash tray. That way if it gets full you can dump it out the window. If you don't smoke, just put change in it.

MIKE ZORETIC

2. Kurt Grafe will become the highest paid mannequin in the history of organized sportswear.
3. I will to Jonathan Sposato my love for high school basketball coaches the world around.
5. Kit Kohler and I were completing the finishing touches on our new novel one night when we decided to run naked on Lakeview Drive. Blinded by the darkness, I didn't see the river up ahead. Fortunately, my injuries weren't extensive, the leaves washed off in the shower; and the man in the car won't recognize our faces if he ever sees us again.

Greg -
You know - I really could not stand you at the beginning of the year - but believe it or not you have improved. I'm glad, because next year you have to be a typical mature Senior. I hope your Senior year is a good one. Mine was - HA HA. Biology was a most interesting class. I will now close with a noncommital monosyllable -

Bye -

A BIOLOGY BUDDY

P.S. Down with facist communists, war mongers, cheesecake, - Pink hi-tops -

Greeeggggs
This book is now signed. So now you can have a good summer!

Greg,

This year has been great and I have had alot fun. Do you remember at the beginning of the year when you and Dave used to do stuff with me and carla. That was alot of fun. Going to that Breaker game and all. And remember on my birthday you gave me a present. That was really nice and so are you. We better get some classes together next year or I will be really mad. Well time for me to go. Have a fun summer.

Love always

Deanna

Greg,
I don't know you very well so I really don't know what to say except have a nice summer and maybe I like you. I hope we have some classes together next year.

Love Myrna

AND NOW... ONCE AGAIN -- THE ADVENTURES OF

BILLY SPUD.

MYTHBREAKER

CASE NO. 965-X = "THE CASE OF THE INSIDIOUS BUN"

A LARGE, SUBURBAN CHURCH...

...WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED UP YONDER I'LL BE THERE!

OH, YEAH?

JUST WATCH THIS!

(TV WIRELESS RADIO)

(GUNNAMO RADIUM)

UP YONDER! YOU'RE UP YONDER!

NOW WHERE ARE ALL THOSE PEOPLE?

ANOTHER MYTH BROKEN BY BILLY SPUD!!!

—Robert Lee

Greg, well, it was a hell of a year. Just think Gene and Lisa are married and you and I are also out of there. A lot of changes. A great summer. Your Friend.

P.S. Call my agent and we can go partying.

Greg thanks for letting me ruin your lawnmower engine!! Well it was fun doin' it ya know? Thanks for teasing next Lisa about our "BOYFRIEND" Ha Ha Well see ya around! Love, Jenny Hutchens
